DETAILED ACTION

Drawings

The drawings are objected to under 37 CFR 1.83(a) because they fail to show details of the applicants invention as described in the specification. It is suggested the drawings do not include shadings as shown in the drawings making the details as shown in the difficult to distinguish. Any structural detail that is essential for a proper understanding of the disclosed invention should be shown in the drawing. MPEP § 608.02(d). Corrected drawing sheets in compliance with 37 CFR 1.121(d) are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. Any amended replacement drawing sheet should include all of the figures appearing on the immediate prior version of the sheet, even if only one figure is being amended. The figure or figure number of an amended drawing should not be labeled as "amended." If a drawing figure is to be canceled, the appropriate figure must be removed from the replacement sheet, and where necessary, the remaining figures must be renumbered and appropriate changes made to the brief description of the several views of the drawings for consistency. Additional replacement sheets may be necessary to show the renumbering of the remaining figures. Each drawing sheet submitted after the filing date of an application must be labeled in the top margin as either "Replacement Sheet" or "New Sheet" pursuant to 37 CFR 1.121(d). If the changes are not accepted by the examiner, the applicant will be notified and informed of any required corrective action in the next Office action. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

The drawings are objected to under 37 CFR 1.83(a). The drawings must show every feature of the invention specified in the claims. Therefore, all the structure of the invention must be shown or the feature(s) canceled from the claim(s). No new matter should be entered.

Corrected drawing sheets in compliance with 37 CFR 1.121(d) are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. Any amended replacement drawing sheet should include all of the figures appearing on the immediate prior version of the sheet, even if only one figure is being amended. The figure or figure number of an amended drawing should not be labeled as "amended." If a drawing figure is to be canceled, the appropriate figure must be removed from the replacement sheet, and where necessary, the remaining figures must be renumbered and appropriate changes made to the brief description of the several views of the drawings for consistency. Additional replacement sheets may be necessary to show the renumbering of the remaining figures. Each drawing sheet submitted after the filing date of an application must be labeled in the top margin as either "Replacement Sheet" or "New Sheet" pursuant to 37 CFR 1.121(d). If the changes are not accepted by the examiner, the applicant will be notified and informed of any required corrective action in the next Office action. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claims 1-20 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Referring to claims 1-20. Claims 1-20 recite limitation pertaining to the structure of the invention however the structure of the invention is not disclose because most of the drawing details of the apparatus which the applicant claim as the invention are not distinguishable. As a suggestion corrected drawing are required. Appropriate action is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 1-4,8-15,19 and 20 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Pipes (US 5,435,684).

Referring to claims 1,12 and 19. Pipes discloses a system for storing and releasing objects onto a production line (78), said system comprising:
an enclosed space with an opening at a side surface adjacent a top thereof; a central structure of the enclosed space (see Figure 4);
a helical support (32) disposed about the central structure providing layers of storage to store objects (see multiple layers) to be released onto a production line (78); and a pusher blade (34) movably disposed around the central structure (see position of member 33) so that the pusher blade moves from the bottom of the enclosed space pushing a line of objects to the top of the enclosed space and out the opening.

Pipes does not disclose an opening disposed at the top of the system.

It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to have modified the teachings of Pipes such that the second opening (78) is positioned at the top of the system because the dispensing process would continuous thus preventing the apparatus have to rotate in the opposite direction.

Referring to claims 2 and 13. Pipes discloses a system for storing and releasing objects onto a production line (78), wherein the central structure is a center rod (32).

Referring to claims 3,4,14 and 15. Pipes discloses a system for storing and releasing objects onto a production line (78), wherein the central structure is a helical rail (see Figure 4).

Referring to claims 8-11 and 20. Pipes discloses a system for storing and releasing objects wherein the objects are selected from a group consisting of containers.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 5-7,16-18 are would be allowable if rewritten or amended to overcome the rejection(s) under 35 U.S.C. 112, 2nd paragraph and drawing objections, set forth in this Office action.
